

Our family time and privacy are important to us. If I do not want to be bothered by a company that I no longer choose to do business with, I feel our do not call request should be honored. For the Federal Government to come along and take this away just because of big money business pressure is wrong. Save our state do not call list!